NOVO NAMES SIMON POOLEY AS CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

VANCOUVER, BC, October 22, 2015 – Novo Resources Corp. (TSX-V: NVO; OTCQX: NSRPF) (“Novo” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce it has appointed Simon Pooley as the Company’s chief operating officer. Mr. Pooley was originally hired as the Company’s Lead Technical Advisor for its 100% controlled Beatons Creek gold project, Western Australia (as announced in the Company’s news release dated May 5, 2015).

“We are very pleased to have Mr. Pooley join Novo Resources as Chief Operating Officer,” commented Dr. Quinton Hennigh, President, CEO and Director of Novo Resources Corp. “Since his appointment as lead technical advisor in May, Simon has already proven invaluable in helping move Beatons Creek forward. With our upgraded resource now out of the way, work towards the goal of production has accelerated. Simon’s experience with building mines, including the nearby Millennium Minerals’ Golden Eagle mine, makes him an excellent fit for our project.”

Forward-looking information

Some statements in this news release contain forward-looking information (within the meaning of Canadian securities legislation) including, without limitation, the statement as to the advancement of the Beatons Creek gold project toward production. These statements address future events and conditions and, as such, involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the statements. Such factors include, without limitation, the ability to undertake and complete the planned exploration activities, the receipt of successful results of such exploration activities, customary risks of the mineral resource exploration industry, dependency upon third parties, assumptions made by management of Novo, the receipt of a comprehensive feasibility study concerning the Beatons Creek project, as well as Novo having sufficient cash to fund the planned drilling and other activities. There can be no assurance given that Novo’s management will reach a positive decision to place the Beatons Creek property into production.
